Albuquerque, NM (May 2008) -- The Grant Plant would like to announce two new additions to our writing team. Wendy McCoy and Aly Sanchez have joined the Grant Plant as Resource Development Officers. These new positions will allow The Grant Plant to better meet client needs and serve more nonprofit organizations in New Mexico.

Wendy and Aly will be working with The Grant Plant's clients in developing compelling proposals and stakeholder relations materials.

Wendy obtained a Master of Science degree in the Environmental Sciences and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Spanish from West Virginia University. She gained professional experience writing grants as a Researcher at Pennsylvania State University and as an Environmental Consultant.

Aly holds an Executive Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of New Mexico. Aly has twelve years experience in grant writing and resource development for nonprofit organizations.

We are very pleased to welcome Wendy and Aly to our team and look forward to our clients meeting these outstanding writers!

THE GRANT PLANT is dedicated to providing superior and affordable resource development services to assist nonprofit organizations in enhancing the quality of life for New Mexico residents. To date, the agency has helped secure over $4.8 million for nonprofit organizations in the state.
